

Terao Hitoshi with human note,
Japanese vocal group, continuing deliver
“the power of a song”.

The concerts“UTA NO TANE at the APOLLO THEATER ~Thanks! from JAPAN~” is to show our deep gratitude to heartfelt encouragement and the volunteer works
towards the East Japan at many places in N.Y.
We try our best to express our sincere appreciation through singing gospel, Japanese old songs and our original songs in choir style,
which comprised 70 members.
Please feel the heart and the beauty of Japan with our songs and photos!

Hitoshi Terao

Hitoshi Terao was born on August 9, 1969 having type B blood, which can mean creative, strong and passionate in Japanese culture. He began his career leading a gospel choir. In 2002, at age 33, he became a singer-songwriter, releasing 3 albums to date. In 2008, he played a role as a guest singer in the compilation CD, [“Really Together.”] with the UNIVERSAL Records.

human note

human note is a choir group that consists of approximately 700 people and is directed by Hitoshi Terao. The choir group visits various places such as schools, hospitals, and day care centers, sharing songs with a theme of “life glorification” in order to show that connecting with people through music is an amazing activity.
