FOLD

Desktop organizer attachable to your laptop

Simple and functional design to carry and organize the basic elements together attached to a laptop or notebook.

It has space to store large items, those who you always have to use to work (mouse and charger), and another space to keep smaller items well organized and handy.

Fold has double functionality: with a simple gesture it becomes a nice desktop organizer. Keep all you need to work ready organized and ready to go to your next meeting.
