

PRESS RELEASE

ITA Airways resumes flights between Tel Aviv and Rome starting March 1

Rome, January 30th, 2024 – ITA Airways announces that connections between Tel Aviv Ben Gurion and Rome Fiumicino will be gradually resumed starting March 1, initially with 3 weekly frequencies to be increased during the 2024 summer season, according to the evolution of the geopolitical scenario.

In March flights will be operated with the following schedule:

- departure from Tel Aviv Ben Gurion every Tuesday, Thursday and Sunday at 3:20 p.m. (local time) and arrival at Rome Fiumicino at 6:05 p.m. (local time);
- departure from Rome Fiumicino every Tuesday, Thursday and Sunday at 10:00 a.m. (local time) and arrival at Tel Aviv Ben Gurion Airport at 2:20 p.m. (local time).

Starting March 31 and for the entire 2024 summer season the schedule will be as follows:

- departure from Tel Aviv Ben Gurion every Tuesday, Thursday and Sunday at 2:30 p.m. (local time) with arrival in Rome Fiumicino at 5:15 p.m. (local time);
- departure from Rome Fiumicino every Tuesday, Thursday and Sunday at 9:10 a.m. (local time) and arrival at Tel Aviv Ben Gurion Airport at 1:30 p.m. (local time).

This flight schedule offers good transfer connections from Israel to all ITA Airways intercontinental destinations, especially to North America, via the Rome Fiumicino hub.

The restart of flights between Tel Aviv and Rome was also possible thanks to cooperation with Italian and Israeli authorities and it is strategically important for ITA Airways as it strengthens the commercial, social and cultural relations between the two markets.

All ITA Airways flights can be purchased at ita-airways.com, through the Company's contact center, travel agencies and airport ticket offices.
